
EPILOGUE

With the All-Truth, the All-Knowledge, and the Aristarchy attributes of DatakAristarchy, our future is no more a dark one, but a bright one dismantling and eliminating our current global enslavement through DDDD (Dogma, DeDbt, Disinformation and Despair). With the Stop Secrecy populist movement giving us the preliminary social and political foundation for DatakAristarchy new regimes of better democracy to be born around the world, we are on the right track to save our world from its current degraded satanic culture of lies, depravation and massive corruption. This potential DATAK (Decentralized All-Truth-All-Knowledge) reformation will amaze most positively and, even beyond imagination, all those having a first approach to its real nature, and encourage them to want its implementation as soon and as much as possible around the whole world, be it by openly wearing proudly the Stop Secrecy medallion or by spreading parts of the book on DatakAristarchy to as many people as possible.

To complement and assist the future positive influence of the first level of the political reformation called the "Stop Secrecy" movement and, as at second level this time, as soon as the present time is ripe, a new political party must be created, called "PAWSDAD" (Public Affairs Without Secrecy, DeDbt And Dogma). At this point, the populist culture of the country should have made people ready to enroll massively in this new political party and win an election on the basis of its above attributes. This is possible because the majoritarian populist culture at that point will be fully enlightened by the All-Truth, the All-Knowledge, and the Aristarchy main attributes of DatakAristarchy. Regarding all public affairs, people should be ready to be governed by a political party called "PAWSDAD" (Public Affairs Without Secrecy, DeDbt And Dogma), being active PAWSDAD fans, completely independently from the Left, the Right or the Center of the political spectrum they may belong to, thus start being governed by the main attributes of a DatakAristarchy (Decentralized All-Truth-All-Knowledge Aristarchy).

Consequently, there will be usually three levels to achieve DatakAristarchy. To start with, at a first level, prohibiting and eliminating All-Secrecy through All-Truth in all Public Affairs, in order to avoid committing a serious crime, is by itself a real revolution unacceptable to current corrupted politicians of our fake-democracies, but it is nevertheless possible if a PAWSDAD party wins an election at full majority on that basis.

Then, at a second level, even if prohibiting and eliminating All-Debt of public money, on the basis of All-Truth and of All Knowledge, is an even more unacceptable revolution to the current financial elites running the world and enslaving the rest of us today, it is also possible to do it, as well demonstrated by what Iceland did during the 2008 world financial crisis.

In 2008, during the current major world financial crisis, and contrary to all other countries, Iceland let its banks fail, without protecting its bankers. It only protected the basic bank accounts of its citizens. Instead, it prosecuted its 26 major bankers and jailed most of them. And its economy recuperated more rapidly than the one of the other countries that had used bailouts of their banks while protecting all their bankers from prosecution with a jail sentence. The USA and the EU, along with the rest of the world outside Iceland, used bailouts to save their main banks, and they did not prosecute any of their bankers. Today, the economies of their countries still have more difficulty than the one of Iceland. The other countries only enslaved their citizens with additional public debt to be reimbursed by their taxpayers while granting undeserved immunity to their criminal bankers. Iceland did the exact contrary. This example proves that level two of PAWSDAD is perfectly feasible to achieve having a country without any public debt.

Finally, at a third level, prohibiting and eliminating All-Dogma influence in all public affairs may be the top biggest difficulty in a country that has not been influenced by a serious Stop Secrecy movement, but it is nevertheless possible otherwise, when a preceding populist movement based on All-Truth and All Knowledge has clearly demonstrated that all main religions, including institutional Judaism, institutional Islamism and Institutional Christianity do include very many requests of unacceptable violence, assassinations, wars and massacres, let alone enslaving obedience through fear of unreal ridiculous punishments like a hell of fire in their most secret books, based on the dogma of their respective faithful.

As an overall result of the above three levels of action, a PAWSDAD political party can become fully legitimized to start running the country on the basis of its name: Public Affairs Without Secrecy, Debt And Dogma, with the country becoming a DatakAristarchy (Decentralized-All-Truth-All-Knowledge Aristarchy) instead of a corrupted fake democracy.

The thirty cumulative reforms of DatakAristarchy (Decentralized All-Truth, All-Knowledge Aristarchy) that are meant to achieve our full freedom from any kind of enslavement, national or global, are all based on various nuances of the meaning of the various attributes of the two new concepts of DatakAristarchy and PAWSDAD.

The concept of Aristarchy itself, as the more proper name of the new type of governance involved, instead of the more common name of “Democracy” (so easily turned into a fake enslaving democracy today), is to reinforce the fact that the enlightened people who are grown citizens of a DatakAristarchy, be they voters or leaders, are all the best possible citizens, inevitably extracted from a better system of holistic classical education forming the three levels of the Tetractys of the soul of a human being on a basis of a well-decentralized system of All-Truth, All Knowledge, Cardinal Virtues and Kallos Beauty while no more being enslaved by secrecy, public debt or dogma.
